

*Laughter,
the best medicine*

Torrential rains soaked South Louisiana and flood waters were six feet high. Mrs Boudreaux was sitting on her roof with her neighbor Mrs Thibodaux, waiting for help to come. Mrs Thibodaux spied a lone baseball cap floating near the house. The cap seemed to be going back and forth slowly but steadily. "Do you see that baseball cap?" she asked Mrs Boudreaux. "Oh yes, that's my husband," she replied. "I told him he was going to cut the grass today come hell or high water."

Ollie's birthday—Sabado Gigante!

Despite adverse weather predictions 29 nine Dipsea Netters gathered at El Presidente in Vancouver to help Ollie celebrate her birthday. She and her friend Beverly were the last to arrive—but, they were not late. The dinner was scheduled for 6 p.m. but that is Dipsea Net time. Almost everyone was there by 5:30.

Gerry and Dorothy were the first. They did have a good excuse, they were already in the area. The positive side was that we got to eat more chips and salsa than the others. There were some complaints that the salsa was, well—too piquante. It took many marguerites to cool the burning throats.

For the first time Harry arranged for us to have a buffet and instead of one big table we sat at tables of eight. I regret to have to report that the Wednesday night hamburger group got a little noisy.

The food was excellent and the staff kept the food coming. We even got an unexpected desert.

Our first outing was a fine success. Ollie never looked lovelier. Marilyn got the prize for ordering the biggest marguerite. Jean had something that looked like a milk shake while Harry was drinking a clear liquid.
